GERMANIA ANTIQVA.

The map depicts the ancient Germanic lands, bordered by the North Sea (MARE) to the north and the Rhine (Rhenus) to the west. Major tribes shown include the Frisii, Frisii maiores, Frisii minores, Bructeri, Menapii, Toxandri, Catti, Mattiari, Marcomanni, and others. Rivers such as the Elbe (Albis), Rhine (Rhenus), and Danube (Danubius) are clearly marked. The map also shows the proximity to Gaul (Galliae) and the Roman Empire (Imperium Romanum). A title box in the top left corner reads "GERMANIA ANTIQVA." The map is oriented with North at the top.
